

Customer Proprietary Network Information—Special Notice

Under Federal Law, you have the right to, and we have the duty to protect the confidentiality of your telecommunications service information. This information includes the type, technical arrangement, quantity, destination, and amount of use of telecommunications services and related billing for these services.

We may use this information, without further authorization by you, to offer you services of the type you already purchase from us and the full range of products and services available from Farmers Mutual Cooperative Telephone Company and our affiliates that may be different from the type of services you currently buy from us. In addition to local telephone services, Farmers Mutual Cooperative Telephone Company services include long distance, internet services, and video services. Use of your information as described in this notice will permit us to offer you a package of services tailored to your specific needs. Without further authorization by you, we may also share your information with Farmers Mutual Cooperative Telephone Company affiliates with whom you may already have an existing service relationship.

No action by you is necessary to permit us to use your information as described in this notice. If you wish to restrict Farmers Mutual Cooperative Telephone Company or affiliate use of your information to offer services different from the type of services you currently purchase from us, please register your request by calling us at (641) 642-3249 within 30 days of receipt of this notice. You may change your decision at any time and your decision will remain valid until you tell us otherwise. Your decision will not affect our provision of service to you. If you have any questions, please call our office at the telephone number listed in this paragraph.
